Michael Caines MBE to join The Bath Priory

The Bath Priory Hotel, Restaurant & Spa (Weston Road, Bath BA1 2XT) is delighted to announce that Michael Caines MBE has been appointed by proprietors Andrew and Christina Brownsword as Executive Head Chef of their Michelin starred restaurant as of February 2009.*

Michael Caines MBE is one of the UK's highest profile chefs and has held two Michelin stars at the Bath Priory's sister hotel Gidleigh Park, Devon, since 1999. Here Michael and his team are renowned for innovative, modern European cuisine. Michael is very much looking forward to his new role and comments:

"It is a great honour and privilege for me to be asked by Andrew and Christina Brownsword to oversee and manage the restaurant at this prestigious and wonderful hotel. It is my intention to bring more synergy between Gidleigh Park and The Bath Priory, while retaining their unique appeal and offer. We will shortly be announcing who the Head Chef is going to be to build on and take forward the wonderful reputation that The Bath Priory has earned to date.

I would like to wish Chris Horridge all the best in his new appointment and I am sure that he has a wonderful future ahead of him"

Chris Horridge will be leaving The Bath Priory at the end of January 2009.

Located within walking distance of the city centre, The Bath Priory has 27 individually designed bedrooms and a luxurious health and leisure spa. Also to be enjoyed are the gardens, designed by their award winning gardener Jane Moore.

2009 is set to be an exciting year for The Bath Priory as they take the opportunity to close for six weeks to carry out total refurbishment of the Garden Spa to create four beautiful treatment rooms, in a glorious setting overlooking the private gardens.

*Note to Editor: The Bath Priory will be closed for refurbishment from 2nd February 2009 for six weeks.
